

Overview

Table 40

Arrests, Females, by Age, 2008

- Nationwide in 2008, adults (persons aged 18 years and older) accounted for 81.5 percent of the females arrested.
- Of the adult females arrested in 2008, 50.2 percent were between the ages of 25 and 44.
- Adult females were more often arrested for larceny-theft and for driving under the influence than for any other offenses.
- Juvenile females were most often arrested for larceny-theft and for other assaults (assaults and attempts which are not of an aggravated nature and do not result in injury, e.g., stalking, intimidation).
- Of the females under age 15 who were arrested for arson offenses, 67.3 percent were between the ages of 13 and 14.